Big families and long guest lists can make venue shopping frustrating. Many rustic venues in Southwest Virginia are charming but small, and couples end up trimming cousins and coworkers to fit a room. If you are planning a larger wedding in Botetourt County, Bailey Wick Farm Wedding & Event Venue in Fincastle is built with more space than most.

The venue lists its barn at 6,480 square feet and states that it can hold up to 300 people. It also provides tables and chairs for up to 200 guests, which covers the seating needs for a sizable reception without a separate rental order. Couples should always confirm the exact layout and seating plan for their date, but the room gives you a lot of flexibility to work with.

Guests who have attended events here describe the barn as very big and open, with super Go to this site tall ceilings. That openness matters for large weddings, because a full dance floor, a buffet line and a cake table can all live in the same room without the space feeling packed. The antler chandelier and gas log fireplace keep the room from feeling like a warehouse.

For families coming from Daleville, Troutville, Buchanan and Roanoke, plenty of room means nobody is left out.

Tips for a Big Guest List

With a large wedding, simple signage goes a long way. Mark the way from the parking area to the ceremony site, label the restrooms and dressing rooms, and post a seating chart near the barn entrance. Consider a buffet or family-style service to keep dinner moving, and talk with your caterer about how they will use the kitchen area. A longer cocktail hour on the porch and around the fire pit also gives your vendors time to finish setup while your guests settle in and enjoy the Blue Ridge Mountain views.

If your guest list is long and you want everyone under one roof, text or call (540) 293-7308 to talk through your numbers. The venue answers inquiries any day of the week. Bailey Wick Farm Wedding & Event Venue is at 1737 Old Fincastle Rd, Fincastle, VA 24090, in the heart of Botetourt County.
