Give the operator the venue entrance, group size and time everyone must be inside. Ask the venue which entrance accepts coaches and whether arrival has to corporate coach hire London be booked. Once the operator agrees the stop, send passengers the same street name and a recognisable meeting point. A postcode alone may point to a service yard on another side of the building.