A Deep Dive into the Bonus Rounds

The piece de resistance of Crazy Time isn't simply the numbered segments-- it's the four elaborate bonus offer video games. Experiencing these in the demo mode is important due to the fact that each runs on a bitz.io completely various principle:

1. Coin Flip

This is the most frequent reward round. A coin with a red side and a blue side is flipped by a maker. Each side is designated a random multiplier before the flip. Whichever side lands deal with up awards the player that multiplier.

2. Cash Hunt

Picture a huge shooting gallery screen featuring 108 random multipliers concealed behind different symbols (like a cactus, a target, or a constable's badge). The gamer uses a virtual crosshair to intend and shoot at a sign, exposing the multiplier hidden behind it.

3. Pachinko

Influenced by the traditional Japanese arcade game, this round includes an enormous wall filled with pegs. The host drops a puck from the top, and it bounces down randomly up until it lands in one of the slots at the bottom, each containing a multiplier. If the puck arrive at a "Double," all multipliers on the board double, and the puck is dropped again.

4. Crazy Time

This is the supreme bonus round, accessed through a red door behind the main wheel. Players are transferred into a lively, virtual world featuring a huge, colorful wheel with 64 segments and 3 flappers (Green, Blue, and Yellow). Players choose their flapper. The wheel spins, and whatever multiplier it stops on is awarded. If it crazy time strikes "Double" or "Triple," all multipliers increase, and the wheel spins again-- scaling approximately an incredible 20,000 x max win.
