The Top Slot Feature

Above the main money wheel sits a smaller, two-reel slots called the Top Slot. With every spin of the main wheel, the Top Slot also spins automatically. It produces a random multiplier and pairs it with a random bet area (either a number or a reward video game).

If the main wheel lands on the specific matching section, the payout for that number or the multiplier for that bonus round is increased accordingly. This is where massive payouts can begin to form before gamers even reach a reward round.

The Four Extravagant Bonus Rounds

The true body and soul of Crazy Time are its four bonus offer rounds. These mini-games transportation players away from the main wheel and into immersive, computer-generated perk environments.

1. Coin Flip

The simplest of the 4 reward rounds, Coin Flip uses a quick and straightforward mechanic.

- How it works: A coin with a red side and a blue side is placed in a mechanical flipper. Each side is designated a random multiplier before the flip.
- The Outcome: Whichever color faces upward when the coin lands identifies the multiplier applied to the player's stake.

2. Money Hunt

Cash Hunt is an interactive shooting gallery design video game where gamers should make a split-second choice.

- How it works: A huge screen displays 108 random multipliers hidden behind different signs (such as a cactus, a target, a chef's hat, etc).
- The Outcome: Players are provided a short countdown to aim and fire an on-screen cannon at a sign of their option. Once the timer expires, all symbols reveal their concealed multipliers, and the player wins whatever worth was behind their chosen target.

3. Pachinko

Motivated by the conventional Japanese arcade game, the Pachinko reward round is all about gravity and thriller.

- How it works: The presenter climbs up to a platform and drops a puck down a big board filled with physical pegs. At the bottom of the board are various multiplier values, alongside a "DOUBLE" zone.
- The Outcome: The puck bounces down the board and lands in among the multiplier slots. If it arrive at "DOUBLE," all multipliers at the bottom of the board double in worth, and the presenter drops the puck a 2nd time. This can repeat till the maximum multiplier limitation is reached.

4. Crazy Time

The holy grail of the game, Crazy Time takes players behind a huge red door into a surreal, Alice-in-Wonderland-style virtual world.

- How it works: Players are confronted with a huge virtual wheel including 64 sections filled with large multipliers and "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE" wedges. Before the wheel spins, players should pick among three flippers (Green, Blue, or Yellow).

- The Outcome: The speaker presses a big red button to spin the wheel. Whichever section aligns with the gamer's chosen flipper determines their prize. If the wheel lands on "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE," all multipliers on the wheel are doubled or tripled, and the wheel spins again. This process can repeat, potentially causing the video game's maximum promoted payment of 20,000 x the bet.

Methods and Approach

While Crazy Time is essentially a game of opportunity governed by random number generators (RNG) and physical physics, gamers frequently utilize various tactical approaches to handle their bankroll and optimize their entertainment time.

- The Low-Volatility Approach (The Safety Net):
    - Focusing heavily on numbers 1 and 2, which make up a substantial part of the wheel. This strategy yields regular, smaller wins that assist sustain the player's balance for a longer period.
- The Bonus Hunter Approach:
    - Wagering specifically or mainly on the four bonus rounds (Coin Flip, Cash Hunt, Pachinko, and Crazy Time). Since these segments appear less often on the wheel (only 9 sectors overall), this technique includes longer dry spells in exchange for access to the game's main feature destinations.
- The Balanced Approach:
    - Spreading small bets across both numbers and bonus rounds to guarantee eligibility for the reward mini-games while keeping a cushion from regular number hits.
