

Brian Wilson founded Hail Solutions Paintless Dent Repair, bringing 23 years of dedicated paintless dent repair experience to the Kansas City metro from the company's Olathe base. Over the course of his career, Wilson has personally overseen the restoration of more than 5,000 vehicles, a track record that reflects genuine specialization rather than a general auto body background. Reviewers consistently mention Brian, sometimes referred to as Bryan, by name, describing him as incredibly helpful throughout both the repair process paintless dent repair and the broader insurance claims experience.
