Action 1: Obtain a Medical Certificate

The very first file required is a medical certificate of physical fitness.

1. Visit a family doctor (GP) or a designated occupational health physician.
2. The doctor will carry out standard tests (vision, hearing, basic health history, and blood pressure).
3. Those who use glasses or contact lenses must bring them along; the resulting license will note the requirement for corrective lenses.
4. Once passed, the doctor concerns an official medical certificate (Orvosi Alkalmassági Vélemény).

Step 2: Complete the First-Aid Course

In Hungary, completing a qualified first-aid course and passing its exam is necessary before making an application for a full driving license.

- The Hungarian Red Cross (Magyar Vöröskereszt) organizes these courses.
- Many driving schools (autósiskola) bundle this course into their plans.

- The exam consists of a multiple-choice questionnaire and a useful presentation of CPR and bandaging strategies. (Medical professionals, nurses, and those with certain medical degrees may be exempt from this action).

Step 3: Enroll in a Driving School (Autósiskola)

Choosing the best driving school is important, particularly for non-Hungarian speakers. Many schools in Budapest and significant cities use courses and books completely in English.

The training is divided into two main phases:

1. Theoretical Training (Kresz):
    - Typically consists of at least 28 hours of classes (or a comparable online self-study website).
    - Covers Hungarian traffic rules, roadway indications, and regulations.
2. Practical Training (Vezetés):
    - Can just begin after passing the theory exam.
    - Requires a minimum of 29 driving hours plus 1 useful examination hour (totaling 30 hours), covering a compulsory range of a minimum of 580 kilometers.

Step 4: Pass the Theory Exam (KRESZ Vizsga)

Once the theoretical classes are finished, trainees need to take the main computer-based theory exam at a designated government screening center.

- Format: 55 multiple-choice concerns.
- Time limit: 30 minutes.
- Scoring: The exam runs out 75 points (some questions deserve 3 points, others 1 or 2). A minimum of 65 points is needed to pass.
- Language: Available in Hungarian, English, and German at many cosmopolitan centers.

Step 5: Complete Practical Lessons and the Road Exam

After passing the KRESZ test, students are designated a driving instructor (oktató) to begin useful lessons behind the wheel.

- Trainees learn basic cars and truck control, maneuvering, city driving, and rural/highway driving.
- As soon as the instructor concurs that the trainee is ready-- and the minimum hour/kilometer requirements are satisfied-- the practical road examination (forgalmi vizsga) is scheduled.
- The roadway test lasts approximately 50 minutes and occurs on public roads with an official inspector being in the rear seats and the instructor in the front passenger seat.
