

Commercial Vehicle and Delivery Van Crashes in San Antonio Walk through almost any San Antonio neighborhood on a weekday and you'll count the vans. Package delivery, plumbing, pest control, catering, medical supply. Commercial vehicles are everywhere now, from the quiet streets of Churchill Estates and Oakland Estates to the busy strip centers along Blanco Road and NW Military Highway. Most of these drivers do their jobs safely. But they're often working against the clock, making dozens of stops, and glancing at a phone or route screen between turns. That pressure shows up in crashes. A delivery San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer van rolls through a stop sign in a residential area. A service truck backs out of a driveway

<https://chancelwfk124.evergrovio.com/posts/small-firm-attention-and-big-firm-results-after-a-car-crash> without a spotter. A box truck makes a wide right turn onto Wurzbach Road and catches a smaller car. Distracted driving, failure to yield and following too closely are among the most common causes of San Antonio wrecks, and commercial drivers aren't immune. Around the South Texas Medical Center, where supply vehicles work Medical Drive and Babcock Road all day, the mix of vans, patients and staff traffic can get tight. Commercial vehicle claims often look different from a crash between two private cars. The driver may be an employee, a contractor or a gig worker, and that status can change who is responsible. The company that owns the van, the business that hired the driver, or a separate carrier may each have insurance. Commercial policies can carry higher limits than the Texas minimum of 30/60/25, but they also come with adjusters and defense lawyers who move quickly to limit what they pay. Evidence like GPS records, delivery logs and dash camera footage can disappear if nobody asks for it early.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC | 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 | (210) 922-0808

A San Antonio car accident lawyer who handles commercial vehicle claims knows to move fast on that evidence. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC lists commercial vehicle and truck accidents among its practice areas, and its published case results include a $2.0 million wrongful death trucking accident recovery and an $850,000 trucking accident recovery. Past results do not guarantee future outcomes. Alex Aguirre spent the early part of his career defending corporations and insurance companies, so he understands how businesses approach these claims. The same team stays on your case from start to finish, and staff can help in Spanish too. Hurt by a delivery van or work truck? Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation. There's no fee unless they win, and the line is open 24/7. Visit the Napier Park office at 3015 Napier Pk just off Loop 1604, or ask about an online appointment if you're still recovering at home.

The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC Address: 3015 Napier Pk, San Antonio, TX 78231 Phone: (210) 922-0808 FAQ About San Antonio Car Accident Lawyer How much do lawyers take from a car accident settlement in Texas? Most Texas car accident lawyers work on contingency, so their fee is a percentage of what they recover and nothing if they lose. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC handles San Antonio car accident cases this way, with no upfront cost and no fee unless the firm wins. The exact percentage is set out in your written fee agreement before any work starts, so there are no surprises. How hard is it to win a car accident lawsuit? It depends on the evidence. Clear fault, a CR-3 crash report, photos, witnesses and consistent medical records make a claim much stronger. Founder Alex Aguirre spent the start of his career defending insurance companies, so the firm knows the arguments insurers use to deny or shrink claims and prepares for them early. Most cases settle, but the team is ready to go to trial when an offer is unfair. What is my San Antonio car accident claim worth? No honest lawyer can put a number on your claim without looking at the details. Value depends on your medical bills, future treatment, lost wages, the severity of your injuries and how clear the other driver's fault is. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews all of this in a free consultation and explains what compensation may be realistic for your situation. What should I do after a car accident in San Antonio? Check everyone for injuries, call 911 and get the report number from SAPD or the Bexar County Sheriff's Office. Take photos of the vehicles and the scene, get witness details and see a doctor quickly, even if you feel fine. Then call The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC at (210) 922-0808, which is open 24 hours a day. Can I

recover compensation if I was partially at fault? Yes, in many cases. Texas uses modified comparative fault, so you can still recover as long as you are less than 51 percent responsible, although your award is reduced by your share of the blame. Insurers often push extra fault onto injured drivers after crashes at busy spots like Loop 1604 and I-10, and the firm works to challenge that with evidence. Should I talk to the other driver's insurance company? It's best not to give a recorded statement before you get legal advice. Adjusters can use casual comments like "I'm fine" to argue your injuries aren't serious. Alex Aguirre knows these tactics from his years on the defense side, and his team can handle insurer calls for you from the first day. How long do I have to file a car accident claim in Texas? Texas generally gives you two years from the date of the crash to file a personal injury lawsuit, and two years from the date of death for a wrongful death claim. Some claims, such as those involving a government vehicle, can have earlier notice requirements. Calling The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC early gives the team time to gather evidence before it disappears. What compensation can I get after a San Antonio car wreck? You may be able to recover current and future medical costs, lost wages and earning capacity, property damage, pain and suffering, mental anguish and physical impairment. In cases of gross negligence, such as some drunk driving crashes, Texas law may also allow exemplary damages. The firm reviews every category so nothing gets left out of your claim. What if the driver who hit me has no insurance? Your own policy may still protect you. Texas insurers must offer uninsured and underinsured motorist coverage and personal injury protection, and PIP is included unless you rejected it in writing. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC reviews your policy for free and pursues every available source of recovery, including in hit and run cases. Do I need a lawyer for a minor car accident? If nobody was hurt and the damage is small, you may not need one. If you have pain, missed work or the insurer is disputing fault, a free consultation is worth the call. The Aguirre Law Firm, PLLC will tell you plainly whether your San Antonio crash needs legal help. How long does a car accident settlement take in Texas? Simple claims can settle in a few months, while serious injury cases often take longer because you need to finish treatment before the full cost is known. Clients of the firm often mention regular update calls from paralegal Jackie and case manager Nicole, so you're never left guessing where your case stands. Does the firm help Spanish-speaking clients? Yes. Hablamos Espanol, and the firm offers language assistance so Spanish-speaking clients can discuss their case comfortably. Founder Alex Aguirre is a San Antonio native and a former president of the Mexican American Bar Association. Call (210) 922-0808 for a free consultation in English or Spanish.