Acquiring a Category B license in Belgium involves passing a theoretical examination followed by a practical exam. While the process requires time, following the legal steps ensures a recognized, hassle-free driving experience across the EU.

Action 1: The Theory Exam (Theorichttest)

Before supporting the wheel on public roads, candidates must demonstrate an extensive understanding of the Belgian Highway Code (Code de la Route).

- Preparation: Candidates can study through official handbooks, online courses, or by attending certified driving schools (auto-école).
- The Exam: The test consists of 50 multiple-choice concerns taken at a main assessment center. A rating of 41 out of 50 is needed to pass. Most importantly, Belgium imposes a severe fault system: dedicating a significant traffic violation throughout the test results in an immediate reduction of 5 points.

Step 2: Choosing a Learning Path

Once the theory exam is passed, candidates receive a provisionary driving license (voorlopig rijbewijs/ permis de conduire provisoire). Belgium offers two primary paths for practice:

- The Free Guidance Method (With a Guide):
  - Requires at least 9 months of practice.
  - The student must drive with an accompanying guide who holds a valid EU license for at least 8 years and has no current driving bans.
  - Obligatory 3-hour lecture on threat awareness with an authorized driving school before taking the practical exam.
- The Driving School Method:
  - Requires a minimum of 20 hours of useful lessons with a licensed trainer.
  - Once the instructor considers the student all set, a certificate is issued allowing the student to practice separately for 18 months without a guide before taking the exam.

Step 3: The Practical Exam (Praktijktest)

The useful test assesses car handling, threat perception, eco-driving, and adherence to complicated traffic situations (such as priority-to-the-right guidelines, which are notoriously rigorous in Belgium).

- Part 1: Maneuvers on a private surface or quiet street (e.g., backing up in a straight line, parallel parking, or emergency situation braking).
- Part 2: Open-road driving under the observation of an inspector, who will provide instructions via GPS or spoken commands.

Exchanging a Foreign License in Belgium

For expats relocating to Belgium from abroad, purchasing a license is entirely unneeded. Depending upon the nation of origin, foreign licenses can frequently be straight exchanged for a Belgian equivalent without retaking tests.

- EU/EEA Licenses: Valid EU/EEA licenses can normally be used in Belgium till their expiration date. Holders can likewise choose to voluntarily exchange them for a Belgian format.
- Non-EU Licenses (Recognized Countries): Belgium keeps mutual contracts with particular non-EU nations (e.g., certain US states, Canada, Japan, Switzerland). Citizens from these countries usually have a window of time (typically 185 days from developing residency) to exchange their legitimate license at their local municipal office (commune/ gemeente).
- Non-Recognized Countries: Individuals holding licenses from countries without a reciprocal arrangement should unfortunately go back to square one-- passing both the theory and practical examinations within the Belgian system.

Summary of Legal vs. Illegal Methods
