Not everyone wants a standing appointment. Sometimes you just need the house to look its very best for one particular weekend: the in-laws are driving in from out of state, you are affordable cleaning Roanoke hosting a baby shower, or a graduation party is planned for the backyard and half the guests will end up in the kitchen. A one-time cleaning service from The Happy Housekeepers is built for exactly those moments in Roanoke.

When You Just Need It Done Once

One-time visits are one of the four core options the company offers, alongside weekly, bi-weekly and monthly plans. There is no contract and no obligation to book again. You call, a representative provides a free estimate based on the size of your home and what you want done, and the team arrives on the agreed day with all of the products and equipment needed. When they leave, the job is finished and you can focus on your event.

A one-time clean usually covers the same thorough routine as a regular visit. Furniture is dusted and polished, carpets are vacuumed, hard floors are mopped, and kitchens and bathrooms get a full cleanup. Window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans are dusted, trash is emptied and cobwebs are cleared. For a bigger occasion, you can add specialized tasks such as washing walls and woodwork, cleaning light fixtures or cleaning the inside of the oven and refrigerator before you start cooking for a crowd.
